

THE UNITED STATES
CONFERENCE OF MAYORS

November 18, 2024

The Honorable Chuck Schumer
Majority Leader
U.S. Senate
S-221, The Capitol
Washington, D.C. 20510

The Honorable Mike Johnson
Speaker of the House
U.S. House of Representatives
H-232, The Capitol
Washington, D.C. 20515

The Honorable Mitch McConnell
Minority Leader
U.S. Senate
S-230, The Capitol
Washington, D.C. 20510

The Honorable Hakeem S. Jeffries
Minority Leader
U.S. House of Representatives
H-204, The Capitol
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Leader Schumer, Leader McConnell, Speaker Johnson, and Leader Jeffries,

Thank you for your leadership in passing recent legislation that provided initial Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) disaster relief funding. While this funding was critical in the preparation for and response to Hurricanes Helene and Milton, it will run out soon.

Therefore, we, the 415 undersigned local elected officials, urge Congress to swiftly pass a comprehensive, clean emergency disaster supplemental appropriations bill. This bill is essential to fund the recovery from more than 160 major disaster declarations since 2023 that have impacted communities across America.¹

State and local governments, which are on the front lines of disaster response and recovery, require comprehensive federal support and funding to rebuild and recover from all major natural disasters since 2023. Additional funding should also help communities prepare for and respond to the unprecedented and increasingly severe natural disasters nationwide.

We believe the emergency disaster supplemental appropriations should:

- Fully fund FEMA’s recovery efforts for recent and future disasters, which will provide essential support for rebuilding and recovery;

¹ The communities affected by the 2023 and 2024 disasters are facing an unprecedented recovery challenge, and timely federal intervention is essential to ensure they can rebuild stronger and more resilient. These include the 2023 Lahaina wildfire in Hawaii, the 2024 wildfires in California, Nevada, Oregon, and Colorado, severe storms in Iowa and Illinois, as well as Hurricanes Debby, Francine, Beryl, Helene and Milton, which destroyed entire towns and devastated the lives of so many of our residents.

- Replenish the Small Business Administration Disaster Assistance Loan Program to help business owners and homeowners rebuild;
- Ensure funding for the Economic Development Administration’s on-the-ground response programs;
- Refill the U.S. Department of Transportation Emergency Relief highway and transit funds and provide flexibility to rebuild any road that allows residents to return to their homes and work;
- Provide funding to support long-term recovery efforts through Community Development Block Grant-Disaster Resilience program, which is essential for helping communities sustainably rebuild their infrastructure, housing and economy; and,
- Increase funding for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program for families and children impacted by major national disasters since 2023.

Congress should also allow flexibility of funding for local governments to address the specific recovery needs of their communities.

We urge Congress to act quickly to ensure that every community has the resources to recover and rebuild in the wake of devastation. This funding is not merely a matter of good economic policy, but a fundamental obligation of the federal government to deliver support for our mutual constituents who depend on these resources in their most vulnerable times of need.

Thank you for your attention to this critical issue. As mayors and local electeds who are a part of Climate Mayors—a bipartisan network of over 350 mayors committed to climate action; the National League of Cities, representing 19,000 cities, towns and villages nationwide; U.S. Conference of Mayors, representing over 1,400 cities with populations of 30,000 or more; and C40 Cities, a network of mayors from nearly 100 world-leading cities, including 14 in the United States, we ask for your leadership in passing a clean, disaster emergency supplemental bill as soon as possible. Our communities cannot wait any longer.

CC:

Tom Perez, Director, White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs
