3.2 INITIAL STUDY RESULTS FOR WATER SUPPLY ALTERNATIVES PLAN

The City of Santa Rosa (City) wishes to diversify and increase its potable urban water supply portfolio to enhance its resiliency to climate change, droughts, or Sonoma Water service interruptions that could occur in catastrophic events. As a result, Santa Rosa Water launched the Our Water Future project in May of 2022 and undertook development of a Water Supply Alternatives Plan (WSAP) in September 2022 to identify an adaptive approach to diversifying Santa Rosa's water supply portfolio and production capacity over time. This project has included significant efforts to engage and solicit input from a wide range of stakeholders throughout the effort, including an interdisciplinary team of Water staff, an external Stakeholder Group comprised of leaders from a wide range of local organizations and agencies, the community, and the Board of Public Utilities (BPU). After working with stakeholders to establish a resiliency goal and list of potential supply options, a feasibility analysis of 18 water supply sources was completed. Four portfolios (mixes) of the most feasible water supply options were developed with stakeholder input to propose alternative strategies for increasing water supply resiliency. Staff and the consulting team will present project background, purpose, goals, study approach, initial findings, and the draft portfolios to the Council for input.

BACKGROUND: Under the existing contract, Recology Sonoma Marin is entitled to an annual increase of their rates; the next rate adjustment is scheduled to be effective on January 1, 2024. Rate adjustments are requested through an application process where Recology submits a rate adjustment application to the City no later than October 1 annually. detailed rate review every three years.

A Detailed Rate Review includes analyzing:

1. Subscription levels by line of business to test the reasonableness of revenue projections.
2. Forecasted costs such as labor-related costs, vehicle related costs, other others, and lease expenses.
