WHEREAS, on August 1, 2024, the Zoning Administrator of the City of Santa Rosa held a duly noticed public hearing, as required by Zoning Code Section 20-54.100(A)(2) and (3), to consider the non-hosted Short-Term Rental Permit revocation for the property at 1611 Manzanita Avenue, at which time all those wishing to be heard were allowed to speak; and

WHEREAS, the Zoning Administrator has received, reviewed and given due consideration to the records and reports herein, and the oral and other evidence received at the public hearing, from the public, the property owner and agent, and City staff.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that in accordance with Section 20-54.100(B)(1), the Zoning Administrator of the City of Santa Rosa finds and determines that:

1. Circumstances under which the permit was granted have been changed by the applicant to a degree that one or more of the findings required to grant the original permit can no longer be made. Specifically, the property at 1611 Manzanita Avenue has received three verified short-term rental related citations within a 12-consecutive month period. Pursuant to Zoning Code Section 20-48.080(C), Revocation, upon a third verified violation of Zoning Code Chapter 20-48, Short-Term Rentals, within a 12-consecutive month period, a Short-Term Rental Permit will be subject to revocation proceedings pursuant to Zoning Code Section 20-54.100. The subject property received verified violations on December 14, 2023 (SR1939), March 19, 2024 (SR2012), and May 14, 2024 (SR2072) and therefore the Short-Term Rental Permit is subject to revocation. Further, pursuant to Zoning Code Section 20-48.070(A)(1), Compliance with Other Codes and Laws, at the time of Short-Term Rental Permit issuance and at all times the Short-Term Rental Permit is active, the Short-Term Rental shall be in compliance with the provisions of the City Code, the California Fire Code, California Building Code, California Residential Code, International Property Maintenance Code, National Fire Protection Association Standards, local amendments to adopted codes or regulations, and any other applicable laws and codes. Based on the aforementioned verified violations, the Short-Term Rental at 1611 Manzanita Avenue has not remained in compliance with the Zoning Code or the California Building Code.

2. One or more conditions of approval have been violated or have not been complied with or fulfilled. The current Short-Term Rental Permit for the property at 1611 Manzanita Avenue, issued on March 22, 2024, includes specific advisories/conditions, including compliance with all provisions of Zoning Code Chapter 20-48, and all other Chapters of the City Code. The property has received three citations within 12-consecutive month period related to Zoning Code Chapter 20-48, Short-Term Rentals. Specifically, the following violations were found:
 - a. More people were found to be occupying the Short-Term Rental than allowed by the issued Short-Term Rental Permit and in violation of Zoning Code Section 20-48.060, Occupancy and Parking Requirements;
 - b. Trash receptacles were found to have been left out on the street, in violation of City Code Section 9-12.080, Receptacles, Location for Collection, and Zoning Code Section 20-48.070(A)(4), Trash and Recycling Facilities; and
 - c. The subject property, through unpermitted construction, was offering bedrooms in excess of the number allowed by the Short-Term Rental Permit issued on March 22, 2024 and as allowed by County of Sonoma septic system limitations, which was in violation of Zoning Code Section 20-48.060(A), Occupancy Limits, Zoning Code Section 20-48.070(A), General Operational Standards, and California Residential Code 18-22.R105.1.
3. Improvements authorized by the permit are in violation of any code, law, ordinance, regulation, or statute, or the use or structure is being operated or maintained in a manner which constitutes a nuisance. On May 14, 2024, a complaint was received citing the use of more bedrooms than allowed by the Zoning Code. Upon inspection, City staff found that interior construction had taken place to create two additional bedrooms for the property located at 1611 Manzanita Avenue, without the benefit of a Building Permit. As such, on May 14, 2024, a citation was issued (Citation SR2072) citing violation of Zoning Code Section 20-48.060(A), Occupancy Limits, violation of Zoning Code Section 20-48.070(A), General Operational Standards, and violation of California Residential Code 18-22.R105.1, which requires a permit for the interior remodel.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Zoning Administrator of the City of Santa Rosa hereby revokes the non-hosted Short-Term Rental Permit for the property located at 1611 Manzanita Avenue, and, pursuant to Zoning Code Section 20-48.080(C), the owner of a Short-Term Rental Permit that has been revoked for any reason shall be permanently ineligible for future consideration of a Short-Term Rental Permit on the property that was the subject of the revocation.

REGULARLY PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Zoning Administrator of the City of Santa Rosa on the 1st day of August, 2024.
