

Proclamation

WHEREAS, lifetime Santa Rosa resident Kristina Schmuhl is recognized for achieving the title of 2017 Miss Sonoma County, and being the 71st young woman to hold this distinguished title; and

WHEREAS, at 23 years of age, Kristina Schmuhl has already proven herself to be an incredible young lady. She graduated in 2012 from Santa Rosa's Maria Carrillo High School with honors and was a member of the National Honor Society and an AP Scholar, as well as captain of her high school golf team and was twice named All-Empire Women's Golf Player of the Year. She also achieved the positions of captain of her high school track team, editor of her high school newspaper, and President of the local Junior State of America; and

WHEREAS, as Miss Sonoma County, Kristina Schmuhl has become a source of inspiration for people of all ages not only for her remarkable accomplishments, but also for being very open and engaging in conversations surrounding the importance of good mental health as she freely shares with our community her own challenges of anxiety and depressive disorder; and

WHEREAS, as Miss Sonoma County, Kristina Schmuhl will be representing our fine city and the citizens of Santa Rosa and the great county of Sonoma at numerous local gatherings and events during her year of service, including when she competes for the coveted title of Miss California in June of this year and possibly Miss America in September.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that I, Chris Coursey, Mayor of the City of Santa Rosa, on behalf of the entire City Council, do hereby congratulate and extend praise to Santa Rosa resident and 2017

MISS SONOMA COUNTY – KRISTINA SCHMUHL
