

SANTA ROSA FIRE DAMAGED PARKS SUMMARY

THE FOLLOWING PARKS AND OPEN SPACE WERE DAMAGED OR DESTROYED IN THE OCTOBER 2017 FIRES:

PARK NAME	ACRES DAMAGED	REBUILD ESTIMATE	PUBLIC ACCESS
Coffey Neighborhood Park	5.85 acres	$5-million	Closed to the public
Fir Ridge Neighborhood Park	.96 acers	$355,507	Open to the public, playground open, stay on open trails, avoid debris
Francis Nielsen Open Space	6.1 acres	$25,696	Open to the public, bridge closed, stay on designated trails
Francis Nielsen Ranch Neighborhood Park	4.10 acres	$257,660	Open to the public, bridge closed, stay on designated trails
Howarth Memorial Park	.85 acre	$0	Open to the public
Nagasawa Community Park	8.5 acres	$123,936	Open to the public, stay on designated trails, avoid closed areas
Parker Hill Open Space	4.20 acres	$567,627	Open to the public, avoid fire damaged trees/shrubs
Rincon Ridge Open Space	9.69 acres	$65,387	Open to the public, stay on designated trails, avoid fence debris
Rincon Ridge Park	.58 acres	$548,739	Open to the public, playground open, stay on designated trails
Thomas Lake Harris Open Space	5.9 acres	$0	Open to the public, stay on designated trails
10 parks total	46.73 acres total*	$6,944,552	For all open fire damaged areas, use caution, avoid fire damaged items/areas

*Does not include 13 additional acres of Department maintained and owned, non-park, fire damaged landscapes ($4,685,603)

