

Item#7.1

Meeting of: April 9, 2013

Proclamation

WHEREAS, since its inception on October 15, 1929, the Active 20-30 Club of Santa Rosa #50 has had the mission of providing young adults with an opportunity for personal growth, friendships and leadership prospects while improving the quality of life for the at-risk youth in their community; and

WHEREAS, the Active 20-30 Club's service to the community, accomplished through fundraising events, work projects, and mentorship, has always been focused on the children of the community, and has aided many youth oriented organizations. Some recent beneficiaries include: North Bay Challenger Little League, Kid Street Learning Center, Verity, CHOICES Education Group, SAY, and Children's Museum of Sonoma County; and

WHEREAS, over the past 7-10 years, the club has raised and donated over $1 million to local charities and is building an endowment to continue their generosity; and

WHEREAS, on April 2, 2013, the Active 20-30 Club donated 120 copies of the Chris Mullen novel, "The Inner Game", to participants of the City of Santa Rosa's Department of Recreation and Parks Neighborhood Services Youth Basketball League at their opening game night. The skills and concepts learned from the book will be an asset to the program.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, I, SCOTT P. BARTLEY, Mayor of the City of Santa Rosa, do hereby proclaim sincere gratitude to the members of the Active 20-30 Club of Santa Rosa #50 for their continuous efforts toward the support of at-risk youth in our community.

Mayor Scott P. Bartley
