BACKGROUND: This is second in a series of meetings with the Community Advisory Committee (CAC) for the City's General Plan Update project, known as "Santa Rosa Forward." During this meeting, the Project Team will provide project updates and present the key learnings from the Existing Conditions Report and Briefing Book. CAC members will provide feedback on what they think lies ahead for the city in the next 20-30 years. The meeting will include an interactive discussion on framing a draft vision for the future of Santa Rosa that will be used as a starting point for upcoming community workshops and meetings.
