

Material and colors detail 641 Oak Street

Existing windows will be light brown stucco exterior with dark brown wood casement window frame and vinyl insert windows. All windows on new Addition as well as the three front windows visible from public right of way will be wooden exterior windows and not vinyl inserts. New Doors on Addition will be white wooden French doors matching historic style of neighborhood. New addition will be light brown stucco exterior matching the existing home and historic style.

