Robinson's honored as Business of the Month

Jan 11, 2017

Kicking off 2017 right, Robinson's Taekwondo was honored as Business of the Month by the Galt District Chamber of Commerce for January. Robinson's has been a martial arts fixture in Galt since 2003. Under the direction of Rodney Hilaman, this family affair has provided training in traditional and Olympic Taekwondo, along with kickboxing, also fielding a team in national and international competitions. The organization is a close knit group driven to instruct its pupils in the art of self-defense. Rodney, along with his wife Connie, are assisted by trainers Dominic Hilaman, Sarah Hilaman, Antonio Galvan and Alex Colley, all with many years of martial art experience. The Galt Chamber recognizes a business each month that shows excellence not only in business practices, but also in giving back to the community. Robinson's has been a strong supporter of National Night Out in Galt since 2004, assisting and sponsoring many activities at each year's event.
