Without limiting the aforesaid, the existence of discussions between the Parties regarding the Proposed Transaction shall constitute Confidential Information hereunder.

2. Confidentiality and Non-Use. It is the understanding of the Parties that Disclosing Party will provide all Confidential Information to Assistant City Attorney Molly MacLean, or her delegate, for the distribution to Santa Rosa and Santa Rosa’s Representatives. In consideration of the Disclosing Party providing Confidential Information, the Parties agree as follows:
- a. The Receiving Party shall hold confidential and not disclose to any Person, without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party, all Confidential Information and any information about the Proposed Transaction, or the terms or conditions or any other facts relating thereto, including, without limitation, the content of the discussions that are taking place with respect thereto or the status thereof, or the specific Confidential Information that has been made available to the Receiving Party or its Representatives; provided, however, that the Receiving Party may disclose such Confidential Information to its Representatives who are actively and directly participating in its evaluation of the Proposed Transaction or who otherwise need to know the Confidential Information for the purpose of evaluating the Proposed Transaction;
 - b. The Receiving Party agrees that if it receives material, non-public information by virtue of its access to the information disclosed hereunder, the Receiving Party will not trade or effect other transactions to which such information may be relevant until such time as the information is made publicly available or is no longer relevant. This restriction shall apply to Receiving Party’s entire firm other than any personnel who are permitted to trade by its legal or compliance department due to the existence of information barriers that restrict Receiving Party’s firm from trading on the basis of material, non-public information.
 - c. The Receiving Party shall cause all its Representatives to observe the terms of this Agreement and shall be responsible for any breach of the terms of this Agreement by it or its Representatives; and
 - d. The Receiving Party shall return or destroy all Confidential Information (including all copies thereof) within 30 days of receipt of a written request therefor.

In addition to the foregoing, the Receiving Party will not use the Confidential Information for any purpose other than in connection with the Proposed Transaction between the Parties.

3. Exceptions to the Confidentiality and Non-Use Obligations. The obligations imposed by Section 2 hereof shall not apply, or shall cease to apply, to any Confidential Information if or when, but only to the extent that, such Confidential Information:

- c. becomes known to the Receiving Party from sources other than the Disclosing Party under circumstances not involving any breach of any confidentiality obligation; or
- d. is independently developed by the Receiving Party, without the use of any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party.

It shall not be a breach of the confidentiality obligations hereof for a Receiving Party to disclose Confidential Information where, but only to the extent that, such disclosure is required by law or applicable legal process including but not limited to the California Public Records Act, provided in such case the Receiving Party shall (i) give the earliest notice possible to the Disclosing Party that such disclosure is or may be required and (ii) reasonably cooperate in protecting such confidential or proprietary nature of the Confidential Information which must so be disclosed at no out-of-pocket expense to the Receiving Party.

- 4. No Further Agreements Hereunder. Disclosing Party shall not be under any obligation to enter into any further agreements with the other signatory hereto or its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates of any nature whatsoever as a result of this Agreement. The Parties shall be free at all times to hold negotiations or enter into agreements with any other persons whatsoever (including with respect to projects under discussion by the Parties hereto) in addition to or in lieu of the discussions hereunder and any such activities shall not be a breach of this Agreement or any obligations owed to the other Party hereunder. Each Party hereto reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to decline, to retract or to reject at any time any proposal which has not yet become legally binding by execution of a written agreement between the Parties with respect thereto, or with respect to any further agreements or business arrangements with the other Party hereto, its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates and to terminate all further discussions and negotiations.
- 5. No Representations and Warranties. Except as expressly provided otherwise in any Confidential Information, the Disclosing Party makes no representation or warranties, express or implied, of any kind to the other Party with respect to the Confidential Information, including without limitation with respect to the accuracy or completeness thereof. Any representations or warranties shall be made thereby, if at all, only in definitive written agreements that may be entered into hereafter.
- 6. Termination; Duration of Obligations. Unless sooner terminated by mutual written Agreement of the Parties hereto, this Agreement and the obligations hereunder shall terminate three (3) years from the date hereof.
- 7. Entire Agreement. This Agreement represents the entire understanding and agreement of the Parties and supersedes all prior communications, agreements and understandings between the Parties relating to the subject matter hereof.
- 8. Waivers; Amendments; Assignment; Counterparts. This Agreement may not be modified, amended or waived except by a written instrument duly executed by both Parties. No failure or delay by either Party in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder. This Agreement may not be assigned by either Party without the prior written consent of the other and shall be binding on, and inure to the benefit of, the respective successors of the Parties thereto. This Agreement may be signed in two or more counterpart originals, each of which shall constitute an original document.

9. Governing Law; Disputes. This Agreement is made subject to and shall be construed under the laws of the State of California, without giving effect to its principles or rules regarding conflicts of laws, and that the state and federal courts situated in the State of California, with venue in Sonoma County, shall have exclusive jurisdiction to resolve any disputes with respect to this Agreement or the Confidential Information with each Party irrevocably consenting to the jurisdiction thereof for any actions, suits or proceedings arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Confidential Information.
10. Remedies. Without prejudice to the rights and remedies otherwise available to the Disclosing Party, the Disclosing Party shall be entitled to equitable relief by way of injunction or otherwise if the Receiving Party or any of its Representatives breach or threaten to breach any of the provisions of this Agreement and the Receiving Party shall not plead in defense thereto that there would be an adequate remedy at law.
11. Non-Publicity. Except as to the Board of Public Utilities consideration of this Agreement, all media releases, public announcements and other disclosures by either Party relating to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof, including promotional or marketing material, but excluding announcements intended solely for internal distribution or to meet legal or regulatory requirements, shall be coordinated with and approved by the other Party prior to release. In addition, the Receiving Party shall refrain from removing, overprinting or defacing any notices of copyright, trademark, logo or other proprietary identifications or notices of confidentiality, from any originals or copies of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the Parties has caused this Agreement to be executed by their respective, fully authorized representatives as of the date first written above.
