Produkt will bring a variety of DJs and local bands from various genres, reggae, top 40, old school, classic rock, and along with some classic favorites!

Vendors

I would like a vendor package to be made available for my vendors to book their rooms directly with the Hyatt, and it should cover the cost of a catered Friday evening dinner, 2 nights accommodations, and a booth/table at event, and Sunday morning bloody mary/mimosa/day of the dead brunch. My estimate $500 to cover booth, room for 2 nights and 2 catered meals.

Workshops

Raven Darknights

Raven is the 2018 Mx International and anything sharp and shiny piques their interest. As the gateway to sensuality, brilliant minds are especially compelling. Believing that what one thinks affects what one feels and what one does, Raven has explored the intricacies of flirtation and seduction as well as chivalry and gallantry. These two seemingly disparate avenues led to discovering the power of intention and focus. Raven makes it easy to learn the keys to attaining both quickly and consistently.

Olympus Leather Title holder

Of course, razors and blades are sharp and shiny as well. Beginning 15 years ago with the acquisition of a vintage 1960 Gillette Fat Boy adjustable double edge razor, a fascination has blossomed into an extensive cut-throat razor collection along with the skills in their care and use. Raven's passion for the alchemy of heat, steel, water, stone and flesh turns a simple daily routine into a ritualized spiritual journey not to be missed.

Presentation appearances include WILL, Apex, Desert Dominion, Southwest Leather, Desire, Leather & Leis, Dark Odyssey, International Olympus Leather, Behind Closed Doors, DomCon LA, DomCon NOLA, Reno Revelry, Rocky Mountain Rebellion, and Sin In The City.

The Allure and Art of Seduction

That smoky look...that tantalizing glimpse...that magnetic energy. Come explore the sensuality of seduction. Learn the key elements of voice, body language, and intention that make your knees weak and your heart skip a beat. Whether you want to charm or be enthralled, learning to slow down, focus, and connect will enhance all your interactions.

Chivalry

Ever wanted to have a soul orgasm? Discover the intricacies of the chivalric lifestyle and explore gallantry in service to your liege. Balance the seeming dichotomy of service and topping to explore power exchange and trust. Unleash your inner nobility as you connect with the sacred.

Hot, Slick, and Smooth – Straight Razor Shave

Does the idea of razor sharp steel on vulnerable skin get your juices flowing? Be a voyeur as someone gets all lathered up and Raven's razor dances with flesh.

Hot, Slick, and Smooth, Too – Intro to Vintage Straight Razors

Join Raven Darknights for a scintillating talk on straight edge and vintage razors. You'll learn what to look for to purchase, about their care and maintenance, the importance of great soap, get ideas and guidance for setting the scene, as well as shaving techniques for any body. Change your razor, change your life and create a new morning ritual.

Psychokitty Ryan

Dirty Talk Game Show

The Dirty Talk Game Show pits four naughty-tongued panelists say just the right naughty thing, before the other panelists steal the clock and finish it up right.

In turn each naughty panelist is given a topic to talk about for sixty seconds without repeating themselves, pausing too long, or deviating from the subject (They can be deviants, they just can't deviate from the subject). If they do any of that, the other panelists pounce and steal the timer and finish it out. The winner with the most naughty points will be crowned the Filthiest Mouth of Santa Rosa
