Dear Ms. Meads,

The unilaterally imposed 1/2 hour time Monday morning (to do what?), does NOT work for me. I will check with John.

Who is the "DRB Liaison (admin)" What do the abbreviations mean?

Who in the Roseland Community will be participating in the practice Zoom sessions? None of the several people I know or met subsequently, who spoke, has ever Zoomed. How does the CSR anticipate overcoming the State and Federal exclusionary and Due process laws in this regard? Why the rush to prevent public participation?

What does this mean:" They were only comfortable with having a concept item at the inaugural virtual public meeting" I re-watched "1984" last night. Is this some Newspeak?

“What can you do, thought Winston, against the lunatic who is more intelligent than yourself, who gives your arguments a fair hearing and then simply persists in his lunacy?” Now you understand and long live the Pig Pen Bar, said Big Brother.

See you at noon tomorrow if technology and the CSR cooperate. I am currently locked out of my down town building parking lot by large concrete barriers and orders of the Commandant (No one in the CSR is taking responsibility or if responsible is not working).

Thanks, Bob

Hi Bob,

I hope that you are doing well this lovely Thursday morning. The DRB Liaison (admin) has offered Monday June 8th from 10 a.m to 10:30 a.m. for the real practice session. I know this is not one of the times we hoped for, but this is the only schedule break she has to facilitate a practice. Are you planning to use a visual presentation (i.e. PowerPoint)? This is a screenshot of the meeting invitation I was sent, so the links are not active. I will discuss all of that with you during our practice session tomorrow (I will follow up this email later today with an invite).

Here also is a link to the most recent DRB meeting <https://youtu.be/70ksUUhyj-I>. While I certainly wouldn't expect (or recommend even) that you watch the entire presentation (all 4.5 hours of it), it will give you an idea of what to expect. Note that this is the day we were originally scheduled to go before the board. They were only comfortable with having a concept item at the inaugural virtual public meeting.
