6. DEPARTMENT REPORTS

Staff presented the postcards for the upcoming show that the Public Art Program is organizing. The Sonoma County Residents Reflect on the 2017 Wildfires Exhibit being held at the Person Senior Wing on September 4 - October 10. The reception will be September 5, 2019. It is a joint event honoring the artists participating in the exhibit and the first free, public screening of "Last October." Last October is a 50-minute documentary that captures experiences during and following the Sonoma Complex Fires from the perspective of several current and former City employees and officials who served as first responders, disaster service workers and community leaders.

It will be screened publicly two other times:

- September 12, 2019 at Third Street Cinemas.
- September 17, 2019 at City Hall, Council Chambers. This will be in conjunction with the artist reception for Sketching Fire Stories exhibit. The sketches were done by Susan Cornelis, Carole Flaherty and others.
