

Police Community Updates

Public Safety Subcommittee Meeting

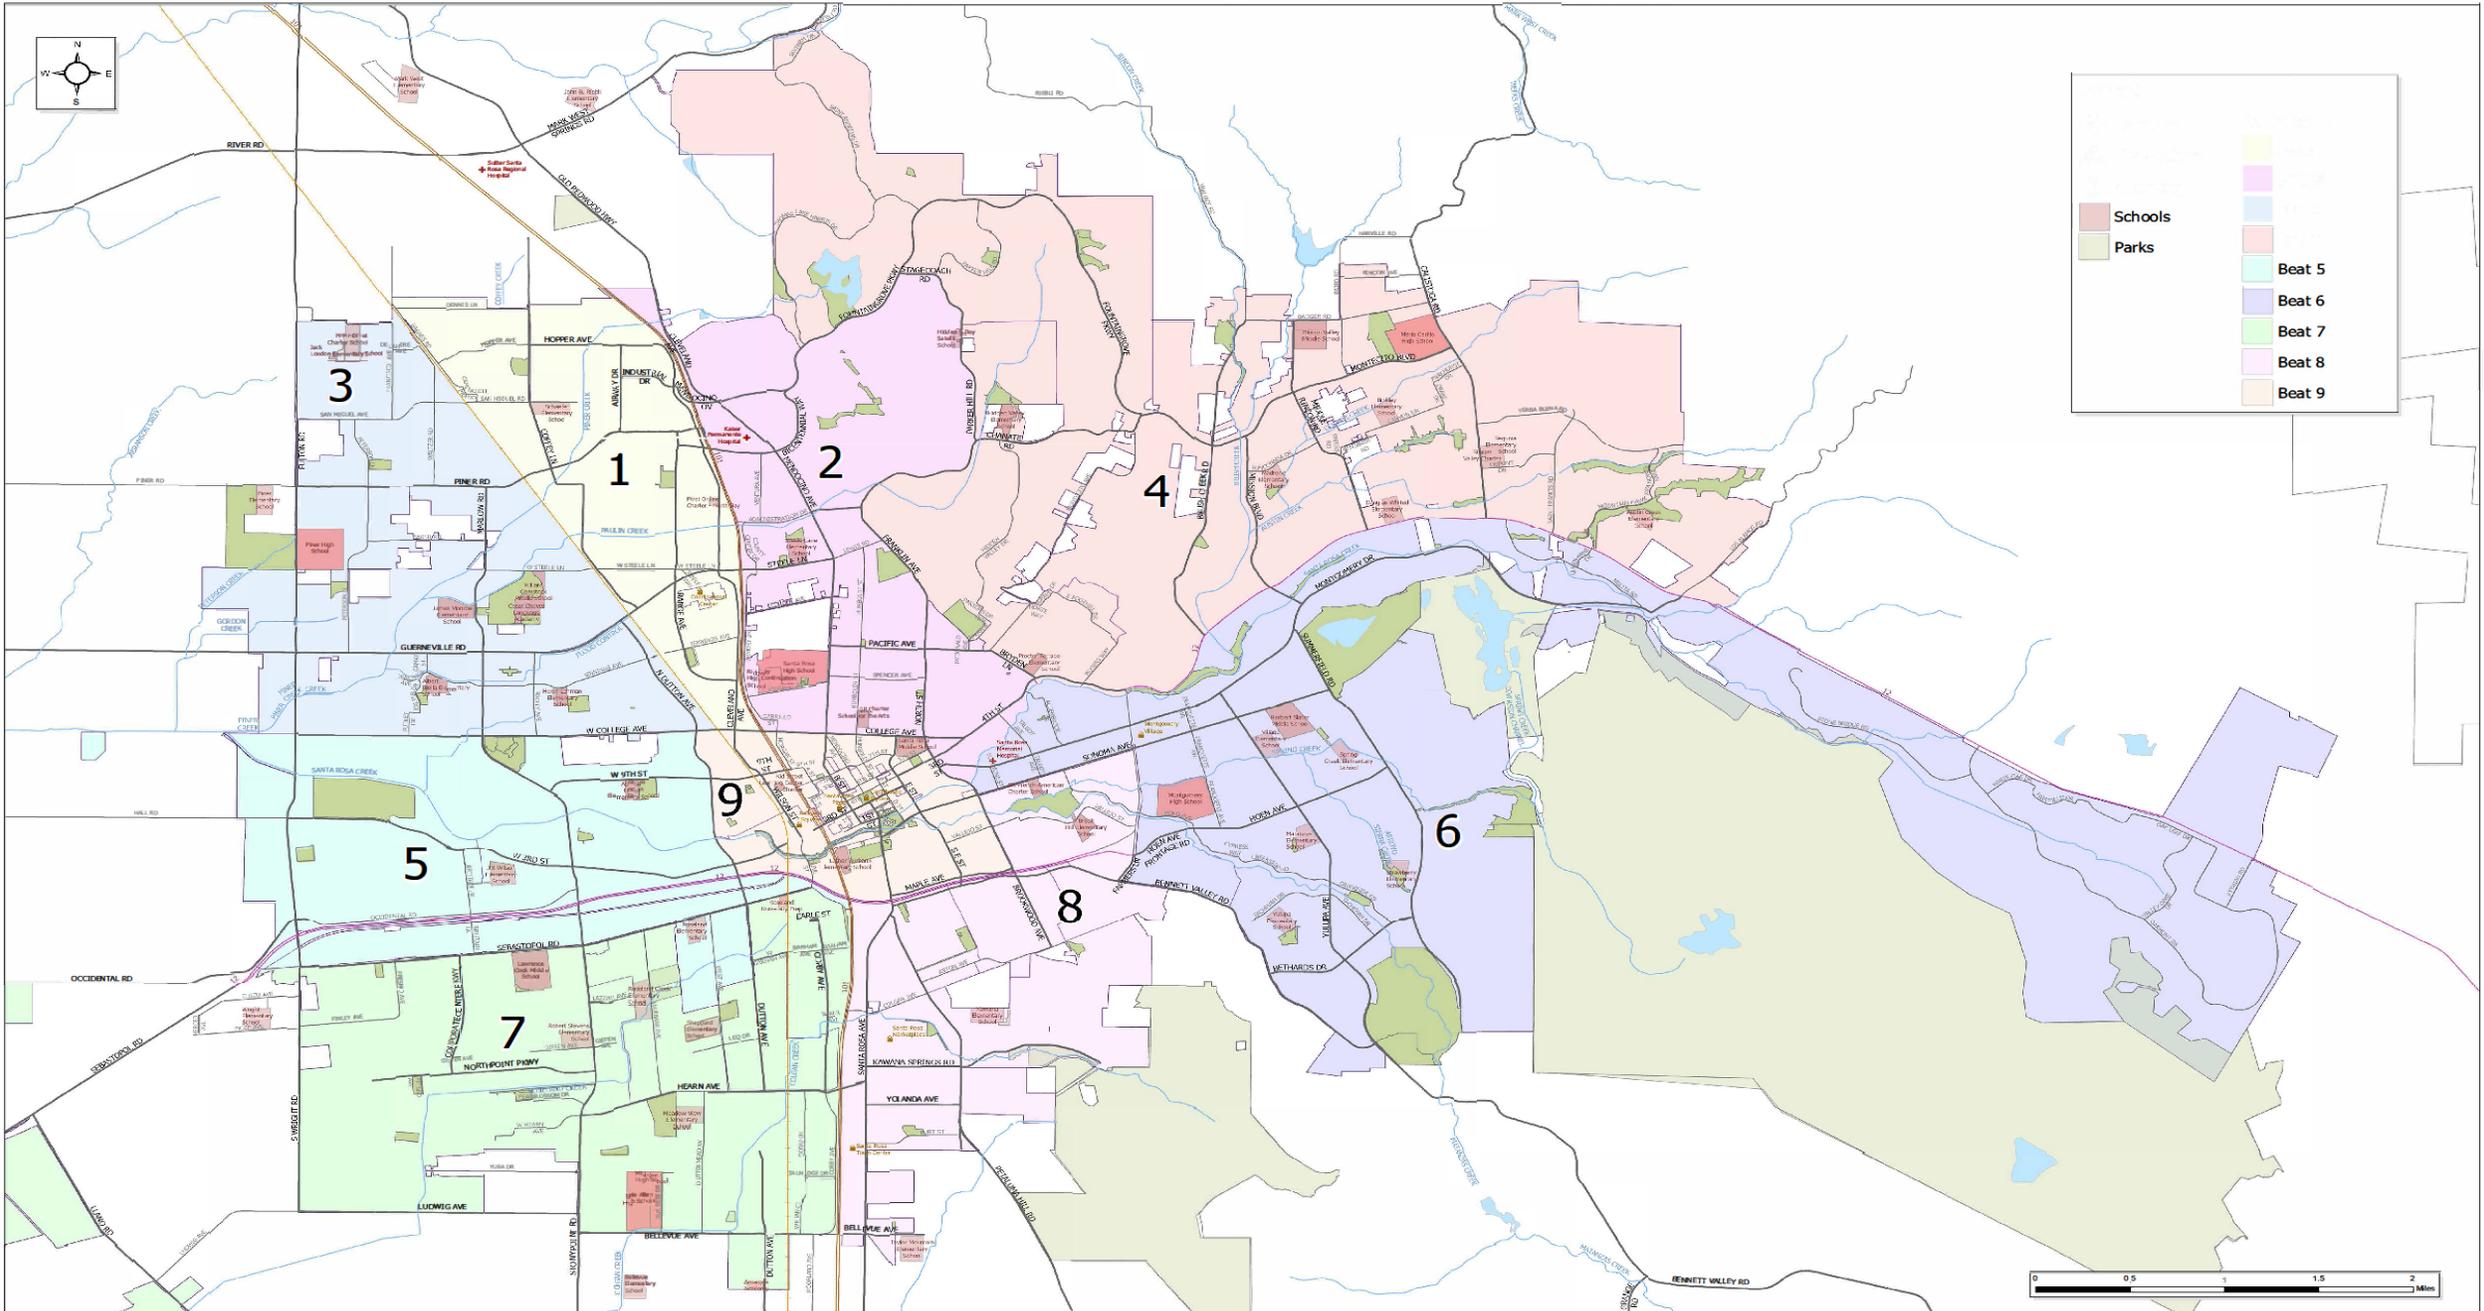

Chief John Cregan
Santa Rosa Police Department

Renewed Focus on Problem Oriented Policing

- Department wide focus on collaborating with community members, businesses, and other city departments to address local beat issues.
- Our city is divided into nine patrol beats spread out over 42 square miles of our city.
- Police Department webpage “About Us” section provides the beat map and the contact information for officers and supervisors in your neighborhood beat.

Engaging with Community

- Holding community engagement events to better inform our community on the beat structure and beat resources available
  - Encouraging community members to sign up for CivicReady to stay informed
  - Actively involved in foot patrols downtown, in parks, and community event spaces
- A solid blue triangle is located in the bottom-left corner of the slide, pointing towards the center.
